

The Transitional Living Program (TLP) is designed for deaf or hard of hearing young adults who desire to have more preparation to transition to the world of work or post secondary education.

TLP focuses on enhancing academic achievement, employment, and independent living. To be eligible to enroll in TLP a student must have satisfied graduation requirements, but not have accepted his/her high school diploma. A student is eligible to participate in TLP until the day before his/her 22nd birthday.
